Project Manager

More and more the world is realizing that we need to preserve our planet and that it requires a much more sustainable approach on agriculture. Also, the world deserves access to healthy food.

Our mission is to provide a sustainable taste everywhere.

Therefore, we design, build and operate tailor made horticultural solutions for our clients, with a reduced footprint in natural resources, water, CO2 and pesticides. We continuously invest in R&D to strengthen our propositions. This vision allows us to operate our business successfully for a better future.

At Van der Hoeven Horticultural Projects you will be working in a professional, fast-growing and collegial organization realizing horticultural projects both in the Netherlands and abroad.

We are looking for a Project Manager.

The role: Project Manager

You're main objective is to realize international projects together with your project team. The project portfolio predominantly consist of Turnkey (EPCI) projects, as well as Irrigation and/or Electra subsystems, both in the horticultural sector. You will report to the Manager Projects. More specifically you will be held responsible for;

- Project -planning, -team performance, -risk management and -reporting
- Project budget, schedule and safety & quality performance
- Contract management throughout the execution phase
- Selection and management of key project subcontractors and suppliers
- Construction, commissioning and handover performance
- Champion QHSE throughout the project value chain

Your profile?

We would expect an engineering and/or technical background. You are a self-starter, result oriented and resilient when required. Proven (international) project management experience is a pre. You combine technical knowledge, a process oriented approach and people management skills to manage and motivate your team, serve your customer and manage sub-contractors.

How we work

We think and act responsibly for our environment and are committed to realize a sustainable solution for every project. We have a passion for technology and are determined to advance the industry. We act as a team and assure our customers can continue to always rely on our qualitative work.
